

SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS FOR THE LEGITIMIZATION OF A JUDICIAL GUARDIANA. APPOINTED BY PROVISIONAL ORDER

- ☐ Application or act of ex officio introduction of a case concerning the placement of the person under judicial guardianship, accompanied by the filing report from which the hearing date of the application or act is evident.
- ☐ Provisional order, by virtue of which a provisional judicial guardian is appointed until the hearing of the application or act. In the event that the hearing date of the application or act has passed, a copy of the hearing roll must additionally be submitted, from which the hearing of the application or act and the maintenance of the granted provisional order are evident.

B. APPOINTED BY PROVISIONAL COURT DECISION

- ☐ The issued decision of the competent Single-Member Court of First Instance (Voluntary Jurisdiction), by virtue of which the person is placed under full privative judicial guardianship and the judicial guardian thereof is appointed.

C. APPOINTED BY FINAL COURT DECISION

- ☐ The issued decision of the competent Single-Member Court of First Instance (Voluntary Jurisdiction), by virtue of which the person is placed under full privative judicial guardianship and the judicial guardian thereof is appointed.
- ☐ The service reports of the decision of the competent Single-Member Court of First Instance (Voluntary Jurisdiction), served by the Clerk upon the persons specified in the operative part thereof.
- ☐ Certificate of non-exercise of ordinary or extraordinary legal remedies against the decision of the competent Single-Member Court of First Instance (Voluntary Jurisdiction), issued more than one month after the last service of the decision, i.e., after the time limit for exercising ordinary legal remedies has expired.

In the event that two years have elapsed since the issuance of the decision, the submission of service reports is not required; a Certificate of non-exercise of ordinary or extraordinary legal remedies against the decision of the competent Single-Member Court of First Instance (Voluntary Jurisdiction), issued after the lapse of 2 years from the issuance of said decision, i.e., after the time limit for exercising ordinary legal remedies has expired (pursuant to Articles 518 §2 & 904 of the Code of Civil Procedure), shall suffice.

Furthermore, for the conduct of withdrawals and routine management transactions by the person to be legitimized as the definitive judicial guardian, the submission of Minutes of the Supervisory Council (based on the template below) shall be required, with authentication of the genuine signatures of all members, specifying with brief reasoning the amount of the annual expenditure for covering the needs of the person under guardianship, within the limits of which withdrawals of amounts from the accounts in which they are the holder or co-holder shall be possible. For expenses exceeding routine management or extraordinary expenses, prior submission of a special authorization from the supervisory council by way of new minutes shall be required, unless the acts in question are those for the conduct of which court authorization is expressly required by law (Civil Code 1624).

Minutes of the Supervisory Council

The undersigned below:

- A)

constituting the supervisory council (as appointed by Decision No. of the Single-Member Court of First Instance of of the person placed under judicial guardianship by the same aforementioned decision resident of(street ID No. and Tax ID No., we advise and decide the following:

The person under guardianship, who was born in, has annual living expenses amounting to the sum of euros (in words and in figures).

In accordance with the above, we decide that the judicial guardian, resident of....., street, ID No., Tax ID No. may, within the framework of routine management of the estate of the person under guardianship, only make withdrawals/transfers/payments from account No. maintained at NBG in the individual account of the person under guardianship up to the total amount of euros (in words and in figures) annually, without any further approval or consent from us.

Additionally, it is decided that the judicial guardian shall submit a request for the issuance of a debit card and/or a request for access to internet banking services from the National Bank of Greece S.A., in the name of the person under guardianship, linked to account(s) No., which shall be used exclusively by the guardian, with knowledge that through these means (debit card and internet banking) it is not technically possible for the Bank to monitor compliance with the above-set limit of annual living expenses of the person under guardianship, nor to restrict access by the Bank to other banking products (e.g., loan and investment products or credit cards, as well as linking a debit card to accounts other than the above-mentioned account of the person under guardianship) and the potential activation thereof in the name of the person under guardianship, in violation of the applicable legal framework and the authorization granted above, hereby releasing the Bank from any relevant liability for any violation by the judicial guardian as described above.

To this end, the guardian shall sign, on behalf of the person under guardianship, the relevant agreement and any other document and declaration.

For debit transactions exceeding the above-mentioned amount, the issuance of a new decision by the supervisory council shall be required, provided that the acts in question are not those for the conduct of which court authorization is expressly required by law (Civil Code 1624).

Finally, it is certified that Decision No. of the has not been revoked or amended to date.

The Judicial Guardian accepts the above.
