	1.2.	Via Internet Banking / Mobile Banking (regardless of amount)
		0.35%, min €8
	1.3.	Intraday trading transactions (regardless of amount and sales channel)
		0.20%, min €8
2.	Clearing Fees
		0.03%
	Notes:
	1. The percentage fees collected under 1 and 2 hereinabove are calculated on the basis of the value of each transaction.
	2. 50% of the fee collected under 1 hereinabove (receiving, sending and executing orders) is rendered to the respective broker (currently NBG Securities S.A.) as the fee for executing said orders
	3. Expenses in favor of third parties: Transactions regarding the purchase and sale of Financial Instruments on the ATHEX and CSE are charged additionally, besides the fees, with the expenses each time applicable, in favor of HELEX, calculated on the value of the transaction (including, but not limited to: contributions, transfer fees, clearance fees and other) and broken down in the confirmation slip issued (from time to time) by the broker.
	4. Taxes: Specifically, sell orders are also subject to a pro-rata tax duty in favor of the Greek State calculated on the transaction value and specified in the confirmation slip issued by the broker.
Trading on (Greek Government and foreign) bonds and foreign treasury bills
Total Nominal Value of Bond		Max. transaction fees (% of the nominal value)
	• Total value up to €50,000	0.80%
	• Total value €50,000.01 to €200,000	0.70%
	• Total value from €200,000.01 to €1.000,000	0.60%
	• Total value over €1.000,000.01	0.50%
Remarks:
1. The table above indicates the maximum trade execution cost. Therefore, the final costs for the customer may be lower but never higher.
2. The rates quoted in the table are escalating, i.e. they apply to the total nominal value of the trade (e.g. for a trade on bonds with a nominal value of €220,000 the maximum cost is: €220,000 * 0.60% = €1,320, and for a trade on bonds with a nominal value of $100,000 the maximum cost is: $100,000 * 0.70% = $700).
3. No fee is charged for placing Greek Government T-bills and Bonds up to €15,000 on the primary market.
